

JO HAUG
CADENCIA COMMUNICATORS
COUNCIL 1

Jo Haug, a long-standing member of Cadencia Communicators, passed away on November 12, 2007.

She had served all offices in Cadencia, and was proud to have earned Level 4 in the ITC Accreditation program.

She and husband Palmer had lived in the Yuba Sutter area for 49 years, during which time she taught school, was a former member of AAUW, and was a 20-year member of Cadencia Club. She was a member of First United Methodist Church of Yuba City, where she was a member of the handbell choir for many years.

She has presented many excellent workshops in ITC and has won Cadencia's speech contest two or three times, as well as some entries in the ITC Writing Contest at Regional level.

Jo excelled in each project and hobby she took on. She loved toll painting at the senior center and was also an avid scrapbooker as well as bridge player. Jo was a terrific actress, and Cadencia members remember well her presentation of the melodrama scene, "I can't pay the rent-but you must pay the rent," in which she played all parts – the fair maiden, the villain, and the hero.

Cadencia Communicators Club will be setting up a memorial scholarship for Jo. We'll miss her terribly, in each part she played. She definitely left her footprints on our hearts and in our club.

THEA WILSON
GOLDEN BEAR CLUB

Thea Wilson, a member of the Golden Bear Club, Council 2 died on October 2, 2007 as she was home recovering from extensive heart surgery.

Thea had only been a member of ITC for three years but she moved steadily forward by winning the Golden Bear speech contest in 2005 and the 2006 speech contest at Council 2 to represent Council 2 at region.

In 2007 she won the non-fiction writing contest at Region. She earned her accreditation as a "Proficient Communicator". As Golden Bear Club's Vice President for two terms she brought interesting programming to every meeting.

Thea had a doctorate in Clinical Social Work and had been a psychotherapist at UC Davis and was in private practice for many years.

She will truly be missed by all of us.
