

Speech Contest

Rules & Duties

Speech contest rules must be followed by all clubs, councils, regions and international contestants, and by all speech contest committees. These rules shall be in effect from August 1, 2009 until July 31, 2011. The International Board of Directors reserves the right to make changes as may be necessary.

1. DISQUALIFICATIONS

- 1.1. Failure to follow the speech contest rules will result in disqualification of the contestant. If the contest itself is not conducted according to the rules, the winner shall not advance to the next level.

2. ELIGIBILITY

2.1. DEFINITIONS

- 2.1.1. Active. An active member is one who pays international and club dues and fees, council and region dues and assessments as required, participates in the activities of the club, assumes regular assignments, and maintains regular attendance. (ITC Bylaws Article 18.5.2.a). The club, not the individual member, shall determine whether a member is "active".
- 2.1.2. Club in Good Standing. A club shall be in good standing (ITC Bylaws Article 18.7.) only after all the following dues, fees and assessments are paid:
 - 2.1.2.a. Per capita dues for each member.
 - 2.1.2.b. Convention fee.
 - 2.1.2.c. Region and council dues, fees and assessments, as applicable.
 - 2.1.2.d. Balances due to International Management Services for prior year's purchases, unpaid dues, and/or fees.

2.2. MEMBERS ELIGIBLE TO COMPETE

- 2.2.1. All active members of clubs in good standing, except those specified in Item 2.3. below, are eligible to compete in the speech contest providing:
 - 2.2.1.a. only members who are a part of a club may participate in the speech contest
 - 2.2.1.b. the continuing member has paid current dues. Former members rejoining are eligible, provided all dues are paid
 - 2.2.1.c. all other dues, fees, and assessments have been paid to the appropriate levels
 - 2.2.1.d. the member has not won the final contest in the last two (2) consecutive years at club, council or region. For example
 - ❖ Mary Jones was the 2007-2008 club contest winner
 - ❖ Mary Jones was the 2008-2009 club contest winner
 - ❖ therefore – Mary Jones is not eligible to compete in the 2009-2010 speech contest.
 - 2.2.1.e. the member, if a transferee, did not compete that term in the club from which the transfer was made
 - 2.2.1.f. a member of more than one club may compete in only one club contest in any one year.

2.3. MEMBERS NOT ELIGIBLE TO COMPETE

- 2.3.1. Members not eligible to compete in addition to those who do not meet the requirements in paragraph 2.2. are:
 - 2.3.1.a. Incumbent international elected officers
 - 2.3.1.b. Speech contest committee chairmen at all levels
 - 2.3.1.c. Associate members

- 3.11. If the region has elected to have a conference only on alternate years (not the Convention year) the winner in the alternate year shall represent the region at the next international speech contest.
 - 3.12. Non-conference year council winner(s) can again compete at council level without redoing club in the conference year and the winner(s) from the Conference year council contest go to region.

4. CLUB

- 4.1. Any eligible member wishing to compete must be allowed to do so.
- 4.2. Club contests shall be completed at least three (3) weeks prior to the council speech contests. The winners' (first, second, and third place if using the Traditional Rules or the two (2) winners and alternate if using the non-Traditional Rules) eligibility statements must be postmarked to the council speech contest chairman within one week of the club's final contest with a copy of the communication forwarded to the first place winner(s), as evidence that the information was submitted in a timely manner.
To avoid any doubt, the winner(s) may submit a letter of intent to participate to the next level speech contest chairman, consistent with time requirements as stated. In the event the chairman of the speech contest committee does not submit the eligibility statement, this letter of intent will serve in lieu thereof and the contestant(s) shall be eligible to compete.
- 4.3. Suggested Timing: Complete final club contest by February 28 or 20 weeks prior to the international speech contest.

5. COUNCIL

- 5.1. If a club is unable to hold a contest because only one member is eligible or wishes to compete, that member may represent the club at the council level contest. The member representing the club must submit an eligibility statement as discussed in Item 2.4.1 (above) at least three (3) weeks prior to the council speech contest. This eligibility statement must also be signed by the club speech contest chairman as evidence that the member will represent the club in the council contest. Only one member may proceed if no contest is held.
- 5.2. Council contests should be completed at least three (3) weeks prior to the region speech contest. A council consisting of only two (2) or three (3) clubs is eligible to hold its competition using either the Traditional or non-Traditional Rules. The winners' eligibility statements must be postmarked to the region speech contest chairman within one week of the council's final contest with a copy of this communication forwarded to the first place winner(s), as evidence that the information was submitted in a timely manner. To avoid any doubt, the winner(s) may submit a letter of intent to participate, to the next level speech contest

- 6.2. Contestants from clubs-at-large that belong to a region may participate in the region contest. The eligibility statement for the member must be submitted at least three (3) weeks prior to the region speech contest.
 - 6.3. The winner of the region contest in the non-Convention year (or the second place winner in the case of the winner not being able to take part) may participate in the international contest at the next Biennial Convention, provided the contestant meets the eligibility requirement in the Convention year. The contestant may use the same speech that won in the region contest the previous year or may prepare a new speech using the same subjects given in the previous year.
 - 6.4. Suggested Timing: Complete region contest by June 15 or four (4) weeks prior to the opening of Convention, whichever is earlier.
 - 6.5. The contestant is allowed a maximum of two (2) note cards no larger than 5 inch x 8 inch or 13cm x 18cm, written on one side only.

7. INTERNATIONAL

- 7.1. The in-person speech contest shall be conducted in English.
- 7.2. The international speech contest will only take place in years when the Biennial POWERtalk International Convention is held. The winner of the region contest in the non-Convention year (or the second place winner in case of the winner not being able to take part) may participate in the international contest at the next Biennial Convention, provided the contestant meets the eligibility requirement in the Convention year. The contestant may use the same speech that won in the region contest the previous year or may prepare a new speech using the same subjects given in the previous year.
- 7.3. Contestants from clubs-at-large that do not belong to a region are not allowed to participate in the international speech contest.
- 7.4. At the preliminary international contests each contestant may give a new and different prepared speech, or any winning speech given at any previous level of that same International Term using one of the original three (3) subjects given at the club level contest.
- 7.5. For councils-at-large that do not belong to a region the winning contestant from each year is allowed to participate in the international contest if in attendance at the Convention.
- 7.6. In cases where a region is unable to hold a contest because only one (1) contestant is eligible to compete, or chooses to compete, that contestant may represent the region at the biennial international contest. The member representing the region must submit an eligibility statement as discussed in Item 2.4.1. (above) at least three (3) weeks prior to the international speech contest. This eligibility statement must also be signed by the region speech contest chairman as evidence that the member will represent the region in the international contest. Only one (1) contestant may proceed.

8. GENERAL

- 8.1. The speech given at the POWERtalk International final must be essentially the same speech given at the POWERtalk International preliminaries. Only minor modifications are allowed.
- 8.2. Only one contestant shall advance from each level within the Traditional Rules. Only two (2) contestants of equal status may advance from club and council level within the non-Traditional Rules.
- 8.3. At the preliminary international speech contest, the two (2) contestants awarded the highest point scores shall be announced as winners and advance to the final contest.
- 8.4. Microphones may be used at any level and will be used at the international level.
- 8.5. If a speech contest is postponed at club, council, or region level due to circumstances beyond control, such as weather conditions, contestants shall retain the subjects previously assigned.

- 8.6. Clubs, councils and regions may conduct contests in languages other than English if desired, provided judges understand the language spoken by contestants. If a region holds a native language contest with the winner not competing at the international level (in English), the region speech contest chairman may send their certified winner's name and eligibility statement identifying the native language spoken, to the international speech contest chairman within one week of the final contest and the region winners will be recognized at the International Speech Contest Awards ceremony. A copy of the communication should be submitted to the region president and contestant.
 - 8.7. At club level, three (3) different subjects shall be provided for each contestant three (3) weeks in advance of the time scheduled for the contest. Again, each contestant shall select any of the three (3) subjects as the premise of the club speech contest. These subjects may be single words, phrases or a combination of both. New subjects are not given at any other level. Clubs are responsible for giving subjects even if no club contest is held. At council, region or preliminary international level, the same or modified speech may be given or a new speech developed using any of the subjects provided at the club level.
 - 8.8. If eligibility forms are not received within two (2) weeks of the contest the committee will notify the appropriate president of possible disqualification. As pre-notification, wherever possible, a fax or email should be sent to advise the next level chairman of the winner's name, subject, title, contact data (including email address) and willingness to compete at the next level. The eligibility forms should still be forwarded to the next level chairman within the stipulated timeframe as required. A grace period of seven (7) days will be allowed from that date or until two (2) weeks prior to the contest, whichever is earlier. The winner may submit a letter of intent to participate to the next level speech contest chairman, consistent with the time requirements as stated. In the event the chairman of the speech contest committee does not submit the eligibility statement, this letter of intent will serve in lieu thereof and the contestant shall be eligible to compete.
 - 8.9. Contestants may not wear watches nor use any timing device. Clocks in contest rooms will be stopped or covered.
 - 8.10. No camera shall be used during a contest. Video equipment may be used from the back of the room or in a location approved by the speech contest chairman.
 - 8.11. All cellular mobile phones, pagers or any device that could cause a distraction must be turned off.

9. SPEECHES

- 9.1. Speech content must be designated under one of the following categories:
 - 9.1.1. Speech to Inform
 - 9.1.2. Speech to Persuade
 - 9.1.3. Speech to Inspire
 - 9.1.4. Speech to Entertain
 - 9.1.5. Research Speech
 - 9.1.6. Current Event Speech
- 9.2. Speech content shall not contain strong reference to political or religious bias, nor be in the format of a narrative story.

10. TIME LIMITS

- 10.1. Speeches at all levels shall be a minimum of five (5) and a maximum of eight (8) minutes. Speakers failing to observe these limits shall be penalized one (1) point for each second under- or over-time.
- 10.2. Timing shall begin when the contestant uses any verbal or non-verbal communication as part of the speech, and shall end when all verbal or non-verbal communication ceases.
- 10.3. Contestants shall be given a lighted signal at five (5) minutes. The light shall remain on for one (1) minute. Speakers will be stopped at nine (9) minutes.
- 10.4. An audible signal shall be arranged for visually impaired contestants at all levels.

- 10.5. The chairman of timers shall read the timers' report after the judges have completed their ballots.
11. JUDGING
- 11.1. Judges must receive necessary information regarding contest rules and procedures prior to the contests at all levels.
- 11.2. Contestants shall be judged on image, voice effectiveness, body language, structure of speech/presentation, content and language.
- 11.3. Three (3) judges shall be used at all levels. (Judges may be non-members or POWERtalk International members, if qualified under Items 11.5, 11.6 and 11.7). It is recommended that at least one of the judges be a member of POWERtalk International.
- 11.4. All judges' ballots shall be counted. The alternate judge, if there is one, shall judge the contest and complete a ballot. The alternate judge's ballot envelope shall be marked "Alternate" and shall be used only in the event of a tie. In the event of a tie occurring in the points awarded, the alternate judge's ballot will be opened and counted. If there is no alternate judge, the judges and the speech contest chairman shall retire to determine the placement of tie positions.
- 11.4.1. Traditional Rules: if the tie is in first position, all positions shall be reconsidered. If it is in second position, only the second and third positions shall be reconsidered. If it is in third position, only third positions shall be considered.
- 11.4.2. Non-Traditional Rules: a top-level tie would allow the two tied contestants to serve as the two (2) winners and next highest, the alternate if desired. If there is one contestant with a higher number of points and there is a tie for the next winner, the judges shall retire to determine the second winner; the other contestant would serve as alternate if desired. The speech contest chairman shall moderate such a discussion in Traditional and Non-traditional contests.
- 11.5. A speech contestant shall not be judged by the same judge at a higher level.
- 11.6. A POWERtalk International member may NOT serve as judge at any final contest if from the same club as a contestant in that contest.
- 11.7. After winning any place in the final club contest, a member shall not act as a judge for any contest during the current year.
- 11.8. Judges may be asked to provide brief verbal comments on the overall contest. Member or guest evaluators should be used for more in depth evaluations. A minimum of two (2) written evaluations will be provided for each speaker at each level.
12. PROTESTS
- 12.1. Timing: Any protests or questions regarding timing shall be directed to the program leader immediately following the timers' report. The program leader shall immediately refer such protest or question to the speech contest chairman involved, for resolution.
- 12.2. Decisions: Any protest regarding the speech contest decision shall be made to the speech contest chairman of the level involved within one (1) hour of the decision being announced. The protester must make a written confirmation of the protest within one (1) hour of the announced decision. The speech contest chairman must review the decision with the highest-ranking officer at that level, who shall verify or correct the decision within seven (7) days of receipt of the written confirmation, and notify the parties of the decision in writing.
- 12.3. Appeal: An appeal from a protest decision at club, council, or region, together with applicable, verified details shall be filed within 24 hours with the international speech contest chairman for a ruling from the International President.
13. SPEECH CONTEST COMMITTEE
- A speech contest committee is responsible for arranging and supervising the speech contest in accordance with the speech contest rules. The committee shall:

- 14.5. Announce that the judges will be allowed a maximum of three (3) minutes to complete the worksheets and make comments. The program leader should confer with the contestants to ensure that the subject and title are correctly given, pronounced and emphasized.
 - 14.6. Announce the contestants first by name, and then announce the speech category, the subject and title. Repeat speech category, subject, title, and contestant's name.
 - 14.7. After the three (3) minutes allowed for marking the worksheet of the last contestant are finished, direct judges to complete ballots by announcing the judges have 3-5 minutes to complete their ballots.
 - 14.8. Direct tellers to collect judges ballots and evaluations and remain in the room for the timers report.
 - 14.9. Request the chairman of timers to read the timers' report.
 - 14.10. Direct tellers to collect timers' report.
 - 14.11. Receive protests. (See Protests Item 12)
 - 14.12. Briefly introduce the contestants and the judges to the assembly and express appreciation for their participation. The program leader can ask judges to provide verbal comments on the contest.
 - 14.13. Present the awards or introduce the person to present awards and announce results of the contest.
 - 14.13.1. Traditional Contest: Announce the third, second and first place (in that order) when there are more than four (4) contestants, the second and first place when there are only four (4) contestants; or winner only when there are three (3) contestants, at all final contests.
 - 14.13.2. Preliminary Contest: Winners shall be announced in alphabetical order.
 - 14.13.3. Non-Traditional Contest: Announce the alternate and then the names of the winners.

15. EVALUATORS

- 15.1. Evaluators shall be appointed to provide written evaluations of each speech.
- 15.2. It is suggested that two (2) evaluations are provided for each contestant.
- 15.3. Evaluators can be POWERtalk International or non- POWERtalk International members.
- 15.4. Evaluators shall be provided with the evaluation format, together with the names, subjects and titles of each speaker they are to evaluate.
- 15.5. It is suggested that each evaluator provides a maximum of three (3) evaluations, so that they have the time to complete the evaluations and provide meaningful comments.
- 15.6. Evaluations should be handed to the speech contest chairman for distribution after the contest.

16. TIMERS

- Two (2) timekeepers, one to be designated chairman, are recommended at all levels. Each timekeeper shall be supplied with a stopwatch, and a lighted time signal to ensure the verification of time. An audible signal shall be supplied for the visually impaired. Timekeepers shall:
- 16.1. Synchronize stopwatches prior to contest.
 - 16.2. Be seated in a position clearly visible to all contestants.
 - 16.3. Count the time when the contestant uses any verbal or nonverbal forms of communication.
 - 16.4. Give a lighted signal when the minimum time, five (5) minutes, has been reached. Maintain this signal for sixty (60) seconds only. At nine (9) minutes the chairman of timers shall stand to indicate speaker must stop and be seated. For the visually impaired, audible signals will be used.
 - 16.5. Track the time allowed for judges, three (3) minutes, and signal when time has elapsed if a signal has not yet been received.

- 16.6. Maintain an accurate record of time taken by each contestant. The chairman of timers shall read the timers' report of the contestants by speaking order in the contest, not by name, when called upon by the program leader.
17. TELLERS AND SCORING
- 17.1. The scoring shall be the same for Traditional and non-Traditional Rules. Scores shall be tallied as follows:
- 17.1.1. For first place winner 12 points
- 17.1.2. For second place winner 7 points
- 17.1.3. For third place winner 3 points
- 17.2. A minimum of two (2) tellers is required, one to be designated chairman.
- 17.3. The tellers should be briefed verbally in advance on their role and the method of scoring.
- 17.4. The speech contest chairman or, at a minimum, one other committee member, will review the tellers tally sheet for scoring and arithmetical accuracy before the results are announced.
- 17.5. Record names of winners according to third, second, and first place for the final Traditional contests when there are more than four (4) contestants; the second and first place when there are only four (4) contestants; or winner only when there are three (3) contestants. Record the names of the alternate, then the two (2) winners of the final non-Traditional Contest. Preliminary contest winners' names shall be recorded in alphabetical order.
- 17.6. Give to the speech contest chairman all judges' ballots, tellers' tally sheets, timekeepers' report and list of winners, for verification. (Judges may retain their worksheets.)
- 17.7. Tellers shall not divulge any information they acquire during this assignment.

NOTE: an explanation of the Traditional and non-Traditional Contests can be found under Club-Council-Region-International (Item 3. of these rules).

18. PAGES

- 18.1. One page is to be stationed at each entrance to ensure that no person leaves or enters the room while a contestant is speaking.
- 18.2. There should be a sign on the outside of each entrance door advising that no one will be allowed to enter or leave during a speech and that no knocking is allowed. It should further advise that doors will not be opened during speeches and that pages will open doors in between speeches to see if anyone is waiting.
